MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

Respect Life Month: The Same Melody in a New Key

For many years, the Catholic Church in the United States has observed October as “Respect Life Month.” Resources have addressed not only abortion, but those living with disabilities, the strength of families, the power of prayer, assisted suicide and euthanasia, changes in culture, artificial reproductive technologies, and many other aspects of what it means to accept and respect human life, made in God’s image.

This year’s program focuses on “Building a Culture of Life in a Post-Roe World.” Catholic teaching on abortion has never really been a negative focus on procedures, but a positive affirmation that life is God’s gift, given for an eternal future. It is this inviolable good that is the core of every culture’s norms that have protected life – at least some lives. The Gospel fills out this picture: each person, regardless of stage of development or decline, social status, or natural attributes, is a living icon of divine creative goodness. There are no lives that are disposable, unimportant, of graded worth, to God.

The Dobbs v. Jackson decision surprised many, but questions of law have always been only one aspect of the Church’s concern. As St. John Paul put it, the core challenge is to build a culture of life – a set of social conditions and personal convictions that we are equally valued and valuable, and that how we treat the weakest and most vulnerable is the true measure of a society’s strength.

Thus the Supreme Court decision does not resolve the issue, and even more so in Minnesota, where abortion remains legal under the State’s Constitution. In a profound way, the Dobbs decision calls us to do more, not less, to support life.

I share below some words from Archbishop William Lori, the chair of the USCCB Committee on Pro-Life Activities. (This, and many other resources, can be found at <https://www.usccb.org/resources/building-culture-life-post-roe-world>). Archbishop Lori writes:

For those of us who have prayed for this moment to arrive, it is the time for a renewal and rededication of our efforts to build a culture of life and civilization of love.

In a post-Roe world, Catholics must now work together for another, even deeper paradigm shift. We must move beyond a paradigm shift in the law in order to help the people of our nation better see who we can be as a nation by truly understanding what we owe to one another as members of the same human family. To build a world in which all are welcome, we must heed the words of St. Teresa of Calcutta and remember “that we belong to one another.”

... the logic of the culture of life recognizes that the pregnant woman and her child are not alone—they are fellow members of our larger human family. Catholics can see in the life of the Holy Family a lesson for all society: Mary, who not only said “yes” to life but who accompanied and cared for her child throughout his life;

Joseph, who met the unexpected challenges and threats to the child with fortitude and compassion; and Jesus himself, who came into the world not with power and majesty but with the vulnerability, dependence, and humility of a child.

In a post-Roe world, then, we must shift the paradigm to what Saint Pope John Paul II described as “radical solidarity,” making the good of others our own good, including especially mothers, babies (born and preborn), and families throughout the entire human lifespan. It is a call to friendship and compassion rooted in the truth that we are made to love our neighbor as ourselves.

Our Church understands that parents, children, and families need help not just during pregnancy, but throughout the whole of life’s journey because millions of Catholics already accompany their neighbors in such circumstances. ... Those who disagree on the morality or justice of abortion should nonetheless come together to pursue common-ground solutions to provide care and support to mothers, children, and families in need.

The opportunity which the Supreme Court has given us is not an opportunity to look backward and return to the past. Instead, it is a calling to Catholics at every level to look forward and build a better future—a future in which the new hallmarks of our society will be solidarity, compassion, reconciliation, and a new unity as a nation. Let us begin.

TURKEY BOWL 2022

Save the date for Wednesday November 23rd for the second annual Youth v. Young Adult Flag Football game which will be played at the DOME on SCSU’s campus. We are looking for a “referee”. If interested or want to know more, please contact Jason Prigge (320.281.9486 OR jprigge@sacredheartsaukrapids.org).

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control" (2 Timothy 1:7).

Many of us compartmentalize our faith. We bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything — all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party, or at work, or out shopping, would your words and actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

ONE IN CHRIST ACC MISSION

Surge of the Heart by Jon Leonetti is finally here – October 2nd (hosted at Sacred Heart) and October 3rd (at St. Francis Xavier) – both nights from 6:30-8:00pm. Praise and worship music starts at 6:00pm each night and there will be cookies, juice and coffee following the talk. "Who is God and why that Matters" is the topic Sunday night and "God's dream for your Life" is the talk on Monday. Jon tells his story and shares his faith to help us grow in ours.

We are looking for help at St. Francis Xavier on Monday night from 6:00 to 8:00pm to do some childcare for preschoolers and elementary aged children. The preschool likely will be in the music room and elementary students in the gym. A handful of adults are needed to go along with some high school students. Please contact the parish office if you're able to help.

There will also be a special "Lunch with Jon" on Monday, October 3rd at the St. Stephen Parish Hall. Doors will open around 11:00am and lunch served at 11:30am. It will be a soup and sandwich lunch and no charge, but we would like an RSVP (for food planning purposes) – please call the parish office. Jon will share a short story and be open to questions you may have. Join us if you are able.

RCIA

Interested in learning more about the Catholic faith or becoming Catholic?

The One in Christ ACC invites you to the R.C.I.A. Faith Journey.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (R.C.I.A.) is a process of faith formation that recognizes the uniqueness of each Individual's faith journey. For adults who have not been baptized or were baptized in another Christian tradition and desire to explore becoming Catholic. In addition, there is a process for families and children. There will be three sessions a month (date/time can be adjusted based on need). The process is concerned with the total formation of the person: learning about the Church community (doctrinal formation), living with the Church community (practical formation), praying with the Church (liturgical formation), and serving with the Church community (apostolic formation).

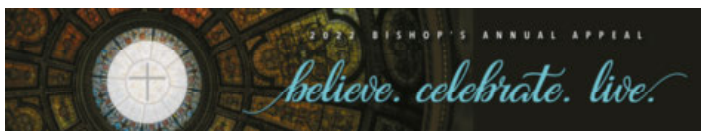

Adults Baptized in the Catholic faith and seeking to be Confirmed?

We also invite you to inquire into the process of helping you to be fully initiated into the Catholic Church and receive the tremendous blessings that all the sacraments of invitations provide.

Interested or Have Questions? Contact one of the following: Fr. Ron Weyrens, Fr. Tom Knoblach, Deacon Joe Kresky, Sacred Heart, Sandee Kremers, St. Francis or Danna Gasperlin, St. Stephen.
