MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

From safari.....

In the North, as life slips into wintry sleep, nature offers us a visual parable of surrender – falling into death, in the sure hope of nourishing the promise of new life to come. The first three weeks of November present us with the last Sundays of Ordinary Time. The twilight of the liturgical year rises to crescendo on Nov. 20 with the annual celebration of the universal sovereignty of Christ. This marks the close of the liturgical year.

November is a month of gratitude. Just a few days ago we honored the saints, all the men and women who have gone before us in faith and whom we believe are eternally in the company of the Lord. The Church has named over ten thousand saints, people whose faith led them to give exemplary witness during their lives.

We believe many more people — particularly our deceased loved ones whom we mourn, whose memory we honor, and whose lives we value. We pray for them, trusting in God’s mercy and in Jesus’ promise that he is the resurrection and the life. Taking confidence in our faith that at the time of death our lives change but do not end, we regard those who have passed away as alive in the Lord — they are also in heaven in the Lord’s presence.

Thank you Lord for the witness of the saints and for our loved ones who put flesh on your love. Our loved ones laughed with us and shared our tears; they sat with us in our hurt and joined in the dance of our joy.

It seems we live with fear daily, and nightly we ingest news of neighbors, near and far, whose lives are shattered by terror. All the more that in these November days we also ponder how we are thankful to God. We bring to mind specific times when we felt the presence of the God who gifted us with life and love, with mercy and salvation, with goodness beyond our imagination.

Thank you Lord for your presence in our lives, sprinkling our lives with your grace, especially in those times when all seemed hopeless. Give us the strength to be that visible sign of your promise of new life.

(Ministry & Life Perspectives Continued)

In the song, 10,000 Reasons by Matt Redman and Jonas Myrin, we sing:

“You’re rich in love and You’re slow to anger, Your Name is great and Your heart is kind; For all Your goodness I will keep on singing, Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.”

Continued blessings on your faith journey!

Fr. Ron

ONE IN CHRIST PICTORIAL DIRECTORY SIGN-UP

Photos are being taken in November, December and January at our various parishes for the One in Christ pictorial directory. To sign up for photos, go to www.ucdir.com. Click on the Photography Appoint Scheduling Log-in button. Each parish has its own church code . . . . Sacred Heart - MN279A, St.Francis Xavier MN279B, Annunciation MN279C, and St.Stephen MN279D. The password is photos. Pick a time day and time slot that works for you. If the times at your home parish do not work out, you can sign up at a neighbor parish. Call your parish office for help if you need to do that. If you are not able to sign-up online, call your parish office as well and someone will help put you on the schedule.

Help Needed

Another way to get involved with the directory is to help as a greeter/check-in person. Again, call your parish office to see if there are times when help is needed. You get to meet and visit with many of your parish family members!

FUNERAL LUNCH SUPPORT

When a loved one dies, we honor each person's life with prayer, the Church's funeral liturgy, and an outpouring of support from friends, neighbors, and the parish community. The grief that accompanies loss is also accompanied by many decisions to make in planning the funeral and accommodating those who gather to show their love and kindness. A long and beautiful tradition at Sacred Heart and many parishes is the funeral lunch. It allows time for conversation, reunions of people who perhaps have not seen one another for a time, and the human courtesy of a meal shared with one another. We are so grateful to Pat Burski, Joan Weyer, Sandy Jacobson, and all the volunteers who so generously prepare and host these lunches for our families and guests. As you know from your own shopping, costs to provide this work of mercy have increased. We would like to offer an opportunity for the parish to contribute to the Funeral Lunch Fund so that families who may not have the resources to provide a meal for their guests can have one less worry in a difficult time. If you wish to donate to this Fund, please place your donation in an envelope marked Funeral Lunch (some are available in the Gathering Space) and drop it in the collection basket or bring it to the office during the week. Envelopes will be available in the Gathering Space until the end of November.
