MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

I typed the email and hit Send. I walked into the kitchen and got a fresh fill of coffee. I came back to the laptop and saw: "Insert Boot Media to Start." I did what a tech-naïve person like me naturally does – hit Return, then Escape, then Alt-Ctrl-Del, then reboot with the secret panic button on the bottom.

Nothing.

I called a tech professional friend, who said, "That should be no problem." He called back a few hours later. "It's a problem."

Long story short – a deceased hard drive. It's with a specialist now – in Canada, actually – to see what if anything can be recovered. It was not one of my best days.

I had some things backed up, some were in the cloud. But some is presumably gone forever, some files going back 15 years and more.

This was not what I planned on that morning. But that mishap with bits and bytes has become a fruitful reflection.

First, and most important, this was at best an annoyance in the grand scheme of things. It helped me remember how devastating are many of the real losses in life that people experience. The death of a loved one. The breakup of a marriage. The loss of a job. The accident or illness that leads to disability. The storm or flood or fire that takes a house and cherished possessions. The missile, or bullet, or bomb, that robs one of a neighbor, a spouse, a child. These are literally life-changing tragedies. A hard drive does not even register on this scale.

Second, I know better about backing up data and reading the warning signs of impending problems with the technology we use. I had ample good intentions. But maybe tomorrow. Or as soon as I just get this done. Or, look, it's been fine up to now, maybe it'll still be OK. But the moment came between an email and a cup of coffee when it wasn't OK. What else am I not being careful with, leaving common sense and prudence aside for later?

Third, this is an opportunity to let go of things that perhaps I relied on too often. I figured I can always go back to that past bulletin column, the homily from six years ago, the policy that was drafted for another time and place. At least for the Scriptures and preaching, it will make me read the Word of God anew and make me think harder about if anything I said back then even sticks in my own mind, much less that of the people in the assembly.

And fourth, it brings to mind one of my favorite prayers from the Roman Missal, on the first page of the Mass texts, in fact. It is the Prayer after Communion for the First Sunday of Advent: "Even now, as we walk amid passing things, you teach us by them to love the things of heaven and hold fast to what endures."

I sincerely hope God spares you the deep losses in life, but perhaps you too might think back on things that were not expected nor desired in your life, and what they might teach. Look for opportunities to leave behind what has become too easy to rely upon, rather than stretching for something new. Cherish the passing things and protect what is fragile and valuable in your families and relationships. And ... back up your data.

STEWARDSHIP AND EVANGELIZATION
LIVING A LIFE OF DISCIPLESHIP

"For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."
 Matthew 11:30

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion, in gratitude, of what He has already given to us.

YOUNG ADULT ACTIVITIES

Young Adult Needs Assessment

The Young Adult Team for the One in Christ Catholic Community needs your voice. This Assessment serves as a continuation to the Synod called by Pope Francis in 2021. Your voice plays a vital role in ensuring we are listening and meeting your needs along with the needs of others when we consider ministry with Young Adults. If you are a young adult aged 18-39, please take the time to complete this 10-15 minute assessment. If you feel inclined, we also encourage you to share this assessment with your family and friends. Your submission will remain anonymous unless you leave your contact information for a follow-up.

If you are having difficulty completing the form, have any questions, or would prefer an in-person conversation, please contact Jason Prigge, Young Adult Minister for One in Christ, for any assistance.

NEW Pray & Play

Join us for an exciting new initiative for young adults and young families! On select Tuesdays, young adults and their young children (toddler - Kindergartenish) are invited for Daily Mass at Sacred Heart (5:30 PM) and then to the playground to play. This is a great opportunity for young adult parents to enjoy fellowship while kids have an opportunity to play and make new friends! If you'd like to pack your family a picnic dinner, that is encouraged. If the weather doesn't cooperate (rain), Daily Mass would obviously still take place but playing on the playground would be cancelled. If you have questions or are interested in learning more, text Jason Prigge (320.281.9486).

Upcoming dates:

*Tuesday, July 25th

*Tuesday, August 15th (Holy Day of Obligation - Mass @ 6:30 PM)

*Tuesday, September 12th

Young Adult Bean Bag Tournament

Join us for a casual night of Bags on the beautiful patio at Sacred Heart! Friday, July 14th, we'll grill out starting at 6:30 PM, bring a side dish to share. Young adults with children are super encouraged to bring them along!

Young Adult Mass and Meal

Looking for a way to connect with other young adults? Come join us, old friends and new friends for Mass at St. Francis Xavier on Saturday, July 22nd for 4:00 PM Mass. After Mass, we'll meet in the Gathering Space and go out to dinner from there. Everyone is responsible for their own meal. Contact Jason Prigge for additional details.

STEWARDSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Donations Needed Last year we had the option for festival attendees to pay with cash or electronically via credit/debit cards. While this was positively received, we are in need of making a change with our Point of Sale system to ensure it is easy for all volunteers to use. We are looking for USB Cash drawers from Square to have common registers throughout the festival. This will alleviate confusion and delays among various stands at the festival. The approximate cost of each drawer is $300. If this is something you'd be interested in contributing to, please contact Jason Prigge or Vicki Sanborn. Thank you for your consideration and generosity!

HOLY COMMUNION

A point of clarification: Our extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion gladly bring the Eucharist to those who cannot participate in the Communion procession at Mass due to mobility issues and their spouse or companion who accompanies them, if desired. Those who are capable of joining the procession are asked to join the rest of the assembly in the usual manner. We ask this in an attempt to avoid or lessen the traffic jam that can develop at the back of church. This is a general request for the whole assembly and was not intended to single out any individuals. As noted previously, the procession to receive the Eucharist by those who are able to do so is symbolic of the journey of life itself to encounter God and the unity of the assembly. We do understand that there are exceptions and we will do our best to accommodate all in need.

2023 Frantober Fest Silent Auction

Items are being accepted for the 2023 Frantober Fest Silent Auction. Hand-crafted items – wood projects (shelves, plant stands, benches, stools & more), afghans, embroidered towels, and quilts go very well.

We look for new products that people could use. Items in the past have included cookware, appliances (think Insta-pots, crockpots, air fryers, etc.), cordless tools, stoneware, and other such items. Gift cards to local businesses are great for the silent auction – they are things people can use and it also supports the local businesses (restaurants, hair stylists, coffee shops, etc.) If you're good at putting together baskets – those work well too – examples include wine baskets, children's or baby baskets, and relaxation baskets.

If you have connections to hotels or get-aways – those could be a great draw for bidding. If you have questions or want more information, please contact Candice Koopmeiners at 320-654-1350 or Pam Banjac at 320-309-4735.
