MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

Many Americans are fascinated with England's monarchy. For many different reasons, we are drawn to the regal pageantry and all of the protocols associated with royal lifestyles. What's most amazing is that for all of the media attention focused on the comings and goings of English royalty, they really have very little effect on the day to day dealings of their country. Thoughts and images of kings and queens are often centered on this story book understanding of who and what they are. We associate protocols, etiquette, and proper words and actions to how we approach members of a royal family. These tools serve the necessary purpose of keeping them isolated, enthroned, and at a distance. There is something attractive about being an observer of ritual, pomp, and circumstance. It's almost theatrical.

Is this how we see Jesus Christ, too? We often behave as if Christ is an isolated, enthroned, royal, and even ineffective king. Jesus wants nothing to do with having the status of an earthly king. Jesus also does not want to be watched, observed, or set apart. He wants to get down and dirty with the very stuff of life especially the poor, marginalized, confused, hurting, lost, broken, imprisoned, and forgotten ones. Jesus is the king who turns the tables on us and wants not only our attention but our engagement and conversion. He wants us to get dirty too.

How we treat other people is at the heart of Christ's kingdom. "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me." At different times in our lives we are all counted among the "least" ones. We may not be physically poor, but we can easily become emotionally and spiritually poor. We may not be marginalized as many physically are, cast aside because they have too many needs or don't quite fit in. But who hasn't experienced isolation, loneliness, inner turmoil, angst, heartache, or loss? Almost every human being has experienced brokenness at one point or another, or will most definitely at some future point, facing discouragement, fear, insecurity. People are thirsty for more than water. We are imprisoned by our prejudices, misconceived notions and ideas, self-focused obsessions and ideologies. There is a lot of pain and many least ones around us. Stop, look and listen. This is what Christ the King is asking us to do. Look deeply into the eyes and soul of your sisters and brothers, all of them, and see Christ himself.

Being a spectator and observing all of the pageantry isn't enough. Jesus wants us to inherit the kingdom and live the kingdom. It is built on the blocks of love, mercy, compassion, hope, faith, and blessing. It engages those who want it, changes and informs minds, inspires and transforms hearts, converts and renews souls, and sets things right. There is such a great need around us. Are you ready and willing to do whatever you can to serve in God's kingdom?

Weekly Advent Prayer Challenge

Next Sunday begins a new Liturgical year in our Church marking the four weeks of Advent as we wait in joyful hope for the coming of the Lord.

St. Francis Xavier invites all members of One in Christ to take part in a challenge to pray daily during Advent. We especially encourage families with children to take time to pray together as we prepare for Christmas.

The four candles of the Advent wreath are traditionally associated with the words; Hope, Peace, Joy and Love which will be the focus of our prayer in the coming weeks. Look for the Weekly Advent Challenge as we join our hearts in prayer and prepare ourselves for the coming of Jesus Christ.

When: Wednesdays- Nov. 25th, Dec. 2nd, Dec. 9th, Dec. 16th, & Dec. 23rd
6:30 PM - 8:00 PM Where: Virtual

Today marks the final Sunday of Ordinary Time for this liturgical year as we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. We hear in the Gospel how the Son of Man; the King of Glory, will be seated on his throne and all people of all time will stand before him waiting to be separated according to their deeds. As we take a moment to envision that picture in our minds, where do we find ourselves? When it is our time to stand before God will he see in us one of the humble righteous ones, or will he know us as one who is not deserving of eternal life? It is good for us to take time to think about this.

What Jesus will determine is whether or not we lived as his disciple as we were called to by our baptism and he tells us, "Whatsoever you did to the least of my brethren, you did to me." Have we actively engaged in feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty? Have we comforted the sorrowful and lifted the lowly? Have we welcomed the stranger and shown love and mercy toward others? If so, we can stand before the King of Glory anxiously awaiting our reward. If we have tried, not that there was any perfection in it, but if we honestly tried to offer all that we had been gifted in life to help make life better for others, then we, by faith and the promise of God's word, can look forward with certainty to eternal life with Him.

This calls to mind so much of what I witness daily and week after week here at St. Francis Xavier. Our parish family is actively engaged in caring for the Body of Christ. Look at this list of beautiful works of mercy that have taken place here in our parish in just the past month or so:

- We commemorated and prayed for our departed brothers and sisters
- We hosted a Red Cross Blood Drive to assist in saving lives
- Our youth and teens wrote letters to "Pen Pals" – those in Nursing Homes and Assisted Living
- We walked with, supported, and prayed with families who experienced the death of a loved one
- We collected and donated coats to provide warmth for the poor this winter
- We donated food and money to the feed those in need who are served at the Place of Hope
- Our Prayer Line was a buzz with prayers for healing and thanksgiving to God
- Our children were instructed in the faith and encouraged to engage in service to others
- Together we took boxes filled to overflowing to the Catholic Charities Food Shelf
- We provided Communion to the homebound and drive-up Communion for those who cannot be at Mass during the pandemic
- And all the while we celebrated inviting liturgies and livestreamed Mass to parishioners and beyond that we might pray together

Indeed Lord, we as a family of God, are a people striving to live our Catholic faith. We are striving to be your disciples in many ways each day. Be with us Lord, strengthen us and give us courage to continue. Teach us your ways that we might stand before you, blessed as you call us to eternal life and happiness with you. This we pray through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

In honor of Christ our King,
Deb Rudolph
