MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

Greetings All!

It is a surprise to many of us to think that Lent is already starting on Wednesday! If you are anything like me, it usually takes me a few days into the lenten season before I actually know what I am doing for lent. We will see how it goes this year... I can keep you posted :)

Some people might say that we Catholics have a lot of rules. Compared to some I am sure this is true. In any case, it is important to remember that any rule or guideline we have is intended to help us more authentically be human beings- to help us know who we are before God and neighbor. This is especially important for us to recognize when we apply this to our lenten practices. So often our identity really is caught up in an over-focus on activity and consumption, that it takes abstaining from some of these things to help us know who we are again, and to be able to rest in God's love. Lent is much more about being than doing. But as embodied spirits, it takes doing something to help us BE.

Lent certainly is a time when we look at what we tend to put in the place of God in our hearts (food, drink, entertainment, etc), and we seek to abstain from those things in some way. For myself, sometimes when food is in the area I think I am focusing much more on food than on the people I am with. On these days I go to bed with a full stomach, but I ask if my heart could be filled a little more.

Just a little note on almsgiving: Of the lenten practices, prayer, fasting and almsgiving, I would say the last one, giving to the poor and charitable organizations is by far the most penitential. It is important for us to realize the importance of almsgiving in our relationship with others, and thus with our relationship with God. We don't always emphasize it this way because this one is the most likely to become corrupt. (ex. Most of us would prefer to be on the receiving end of someone's almsgiving for us than on the receiving end of them fasting for us). Hopefully our hearts being open to the poor takes effect by our wallets also being open to them.

We ask the Holy Spirit to help us simply BE before God and before others and we pray that we can DO what it takes. Have a blessed Lent!

Peace,
Fr. Doug

When some of us hear the word Stewardship, we think 'the church is asking for money'. Financially supporting your parish is very important but it is only part of Stewardship.

Time and talent, along with treasure, are gifts from God. Using these gifts to help others is Stewardship.

Take some time to think about your gifts of time and talent. Perhaps contact your parish office for ways you can help your parish with your time and talents.

An Adapted Ash Wednesday – Sprinkled Ashes

On January 12, Cardinal Sarah of Rome's Congregation for Divine Worship issued a "Note" with instructions for the "Distribution of Ashes in Time of Pandemic." Bishop Kettler has directed that our parishes comply with this adaptation for receiving ashes this year on Ash Wednesday, February 17.

The ashes will be blessed, and the formula "Repent and believe in the Gospel" (or, "Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return") is said only once over the entire congregation. Then the faithful process to the stations where ashes are distributed, and a small amount is lightly sprinkled on each person's head in silence, rather than applying them directly to the forehead.

Feeling disconnected? Every married couple deserves the gift of a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend! The next virtual weekend in this area will be held Feb 18-28 © 2021. Early registration is highly recommended. For more information visit our website at: northmnwwme.org or contact Brent & Tracy at applications@twincitieswwme.org or 612-756-8720.

REST IN PEACE

Please remember in your prayers the families of Mary Jo Dhein who passed away February 6, from St. Francis Xavier, and the family of George Czech from Sacred Heart who passed away on February 1. Eternal rest grant unto them and let perpetual light shine upon them.

BAPTISMS

We welcome the following children, baptized at Sacred Heart into our parish family and the Christian community:
Avayah Lynn Brown, daughter of DeAndre & Brittany
Layne Ann Headley, daughter of Dane & Blair

Visit the link thepopevideo.org for the February, 2021 pope video.
Translation: Today, there continue to be women who suffer violence. Psychological violence, verbal violence, physical violence, sexual violence. It's shocking how many women are beaten, insulted, and raped. The various forms of ill-treatment that many women suffer are acts of cowardice and a degradation of all humanity. Of men and of all humanity. The testimonies of the victims who dare to break their silence are a cry for help that we cannot ignore. We must not look the other way. Let us pray for women who are victims of violence, that they may be protected by society and have their sufferings considered and heeded by all.

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER PARISH

Happy Valentine's Day!

We love because God loved us first. We have often heard this proclaimed and if you take time to think about it, you are sure to find it so.

For most people, our first experience of love is from a parent who cares for us as an infant who is totally dependent upon them for our well-being and survival. God, too, is a parent who we totally rely on for well-being and survival throughout our time on this earth AND for eternity with Him in heaven.

A parent makes many sacrifices for his/her child(ren). Trying to list them all could take quite some time and though those sacrifices are many times difficult, a parent makes them freely, out of love for their child. God does the same, though God gave the ultimate sacrifice in the gifting of his Son to a world in need of a Savior. In God's wisdom, God understood the need for a sacrifice that would be "ONCE AND FOR ALL", and so his Son Jesus Christ died on the cross – the ultimate act of LOVE. The ultimate sacrifice of Jesus, born out of a love so deep we can only imagine, secured the salvation of all people. It was the ultimate, one true gift that defines God for God is LOVE.

On this day as the world is showered with red and pink hearts, gifts for those we love and a desire to spend time with the most important people in our lives, let us not forget how we learned to love. Let us be mindful of a God who loved so deeply who had a plan for all to be with him forever. God never ceases to draw us to himself. Receive that gift of love and do with it what God desires most – SHARE IT!

Thank you, Lord, for this day which reminds us to love, to show kindness, to make others happy. Let us learn to love more deeply. Let us be ever mindful of the gift of love that you first gave to us. And by our words and actions, may your love continue to grow in the hearts of all your people. With gratitude for the sacrifices you made, we pray in Jesus' name that we can learn to love as you have loved. Amen.

In His Love,
Deb Rudolph
