MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

From Safari.....

Lessons from a TREE STAND. Vehicles dart about on the highways proudly displaying their successful hunting of deer or trees.

In the past few weeks countless hunters have climbed their TREE STANDS in hopes of shooting a deer, perhaps a trophy buck. The time on the tree stand often provides a time to be in sync with nature and to reflect. One hunter mused, "The wilderness always affirms my belief in God. When you observe the intricacies of an ecosystem unsullied by the hand of humankind and begin to understand how every plant, rock, liquid and animal — and the vagaries of weather — all have their place in the working of day-to-day life, and then break it down as far as you can to the interactions between various individual elements, how can you believe anything but that it was all part of some grand design, and not random?" And still another, "If the apocalypse came while I was on stand and I was the only person left alive, would I hurry to eat all the ice cream before the power shut off?" And my favorite: "It's only 11:00 a.m. Why did I eat all my lunch already?"

Other hunters roam streets or stores. This hunter may have a saw in hand, walking through snow, (Yes, Virginia, there is snow. Watch the snow come now.) to find the perfect Christmas tree. Others go from lot to lot, looking for the right tree. (Long needle, short needle; fir, pine, spruce, cedar...) The tree is placed in the TREE STAND to settle before it is adorned with lights and ornaments. The true in all its regal glory had one tree hunter ponder, "A Christmas tree allows me to settle into the meaning of Christmas. It reminds me of the tree that brought the need for a child born in Bethlehem and the tree of Calvary that righted it all. And it reminds me to stop climbing for a never attainable perfection but to recognize that God who covers me in grace is close enough to touch."

Advent is a season that invites us to ponder from a TREE STAND. We are challenged to see God's hand at work in the world and how we are invited to actively bring God's love to one another. We are challenged to be patient with others and ourselves, recognizing that each of us is the dwelling place of Emmanuel. We are challenged to remember that Bethlehem to Jerusalem is the most important event in our lives. God's son breaks into this world as a baby is placed in the tree of a manger and on the tree of the cross and his resurrection sets us free from sin and death.

O come, O come Emmanuel! Fr. Ron

PREPARING FOR CHRISTMAS

Question:

With Christmas fast approaching, can you give me some practical tips to prepare myself and my family that will help us stay grounded in what this holiday is really about? With all the commercialism, it's easy to stray.

Answer:

Happy times and events bring fond memories and a renewed sense of love and kinship with others. The anticipation is half the joy of the event itself. The coming of the Lord is that kind of event that people have been looking forward to for generations with fervent hope and desire. It gave them strength and courage as they waited for the coming of the Lord.

We know that Christmas is rushed. Sales begin in August and carols blare long before the season begins. Everyone laments the commercial aspects of the season, but as Advent begins, do something to help you be more mindful of the Lord's coming. Use an Advent wreath, or enthrone the Bible prominently, or read the readings from the Bible assigned to each day. Postpone the tree and decorations until closer to Christmas. Establish new family rituals, customs and prayers that help remind everyone that we are preparing to celebrate the birth of Jesus. Fasting, daily Mass, a special celebration of reconciliation, reaching out to those alienated from family or society, and visiting the homebound manifest the love of the Christ Child and the Holy Family. Resist the temptation to rush the season. In his own time and in his own way, God will come. Our task is simply to be watchful and ready.

STEWARDSHIP

Prayer is one of the four pillars of Stewardship as a lifestyle.

“One who prays ceaselessly is one who combines prayer with work and work with prayer.”
— Origen, On Prayer (Early Christian scholar and theologian.)

Do you whistle while you work? Do you talk to yourself? Do you sing as you drive? Then why not try talking to God as you cook? Talking to God as you walk? This is prayer.

Ephesians 6.18 With all prayer and supplication, pray at every opportunity in the Spirit.

Tips to Prevent Holiday Stress & Depression

Acknowledge Your Feelings – If someone close to you has recently died or you can't be with loved ones, realize that it's normal to feel sadness and grief. It's OK to take time to cry or express your feelings. You can't force yourself to be happy just because it's the Holiday Season.

Reach Out – If you feel lonely or isolated, attend a Mass, seek out the community or other social events. They can offer support and companionship. Volunteering your time to help others also is a good way to lift your spirits and broaden your friendships.

Be Realistic – the Holidays don't have to be perfect or just like last year. As families change and grow, traditions and rituals often change as well.

Choose a few to hold on to, and be open to creating new ones. For example, if your adult children can't come to your house, find new ways to celebrate together, such as sharing pictures, emails and videos.

If you need to talk with someone we have Parish Nurses, Friends in Faith or our Pastoral Associate. We will be happy to connect you and offer resources that are available. God Bless!

Year End and Electronic Giving

Please remember St. Francis Xavier Parish as you consider charitable donations at the end of the year. For parishioners who have reached the age that Required Minimum Distributions (RMD) from your IRA are being done, please consider gifting St. Francis Xavier. There may be tax benefits for such a donation. Please see your accountant or financial advisor for verify and for more information about how to make such a contribution. Thank you to all who continue to support St. Francis Xavier Parish and the many ministries that take place here.

If you have any questions regarding electronic giving, please contact Tom Offerdahl in the parish office – 320-252-1363, ext. 1105 or email toffedahl@stfrancissartell.org.

SHARE THE SPIRIT TREE

Look for the Share the Spirit Tree at St. Francis Xavier and take one or more tags. Return gifts to SFX no later than December 11 or 12.
