MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

From Safari....

Fans of Meteorology, know that autumn began on the first of September.

For many Labor Day Weekend is the last weekend of summer, as we jump into the school year on the day after Labor Day and a different kind of busy begins.

Political campaigns switch into high gear ahead of the November elections. This both exciting and dreadful. One of the great aspects of democracy is that we have voice in choosing our leaders and the direction of our country, state, city, and school.

This is for many a dreadful time as campaigns have seemingly gotten worse as the years go by. We are deluged with mailings, robocalls, radio, TV, and social media. Lawn signs dot our routes as we drive to work and run our errands. Election brings a sigh of relief.

There can be the temptation not to enter the process. As Christians we have a responsibility to bring gospel values into the public debate on the issues influence how we live. As the Bishops of the United States have written:

“As Catholics, we bring the richness of our faith to the public square. We draw from both faith and reason as we seek to affirm the dignity of the human person and the common good of all. With renewed hope, we, the Catholic Bishops of the United States, are re-issuing Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, our teaching document on the political responsibility of Catholics, which provides guidance for all who seek to exercise their rights and duties as citizens. Everyone living in this country is called to participate in public life and contribute to the common good.<sup>1</sup> In Rejoice and Be Glad [Gaudete et Exsultate], Pope Francis writes:

Your identification with Christ and his will involves a commitment to build with him that kingdom of love, justice and universal peace. . . . You cannot grow in holiness without committing yourself, body and soul, to giving your best to this endeavor.<sup>2</sup>

The call to holiness, he writes, requires a “firm and passionate” defense of “the innocent unborn.” “Equally sacred,” he further states, are “the lives of the poor, those already born, the destitute, the abandoned and the underprivileged, the vulnerable infirm and elderly exposed to covert euthanasia, the victims of human trafficking, new forms of slavery, and every form of rejection.”<sup>3</sup>

Our approach to contemporary issues is first and foremost rooted in our identity as followers of Christ and as brothers and sisters to all who are made in God’s image. For all Catholics, including those seeking public office, our participation in political parties or other groups to which we may belong should be influenced by our faith, not the other way around.”<sup>4</sup>

(Ministry & Life Perspectives Continued)

I encourage you to take part in the political process. Support a political party or be independent. Campaign for the candidates you feel will best lead and include gospel values. Again, the bishops write:

“As Catholics, we are led to raise questions for political life other than those that concentrate on individual, material well-being. Our focus is not on party affiliation, ideology, economics, or even competence and capacity to perform duties, as important as such issues are. Rather, we focus on what protects or threatens the dignity of every human life.”<sup>5</sup>

Included with this week’s bulletin, on our bulletin boards, and social media platforms are guidelines that Bishop Kettler and the bishops of Minnesota support as we enter into this election cycle.

Come Holy Spirit, guide the candidates and voters!

Have a peace filled week! Fr. Ron

1 Catechism of the Catholic Church, nos. 1913-15.

2 Pope Francis, Gaudete et Exsultate, no. 25.

3 Ibid, no. 101.

4 Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship 2020, introduction

5 Ibid, no. 91.

Take part in the public debate This is also an exciting time as we again have the opportunity to exercise our right to vote. To have our chance to influence the leadership of our country.

Voting is not optional for us as Catholics.

STEWARDSHIP AND EVANGELIZATION

LIVING A LIFE OF DISCIPLESHIP

Today's readings focus on the personal, passionate, and merciful love of God which should fill us with unending gratitude to Him. This gratitude is the fuel, if you will, that keeps the stewardship way of life rolling along.

In our Second Reading, from St. Paul's letter to Timothy, we find a grateful Paul who says of himself, "I was once a blasphemer and a persecutor and arrogant, but I have been mercifully treated." St. Paul is well aware of the sins he has committed. But this does not hold him back from ministry. Rather, it makes him all the more grateful to be God's steward. How encouraging to know that this is true for us as well. Our past sins, and even our present struggles, do not disqualify us from becoming God's grateful stewards.

Jesus gives us several poignant illustrations of His merciful love in today's Gospel reading from Luke. Let us focus on one, in particular — the story of the lost sheep. He asks, "What man among you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine... and go after the lost one until he finds it?"

The logical response is no one! It simply does not make sense to spend time and energy searching for one lost sheep when there are so many others to tend to. But God's logic, God's mercy, defies human logic. And who is the lost one? It is every one of us when we stray away from God through sin, great or small.

What gratitude we owe to such a personal, passionate, loving God! Just think, even our sins, once forgiven, become a source of fuel for our stewardship way of life as we reflect with deep gratitude on the powerful mercy of our Savior.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development is a program of the U.S. Bishops to address poverty in meaningful ways in local communities, consistent with the Gospel message. These funds go to support grant opportunities and programs that help people help themselves to improve the quality of life for themselves and their families.

Small Group Experience

12 sessions

Cost $10

Starting Monday, September 19

9:15 am – Xavier Hall

Are you a Christian living like Christ? Do you desire for your life to reflect Christ in a clear and powerful way to those around you? Focusing on lifestyle factors that are relational, grace-based, faith-focused, and practical, in this small group we will explore the biblical model laid out in Romans 12.

We live in a world that is activity-heavy and relationship-light. The result can be spiritual emptiness. In Romans 12, God gives us a clear picture of what Christians should look like at a root level. If your ready to move from "in" to "all in" then you're ready to become a Romans 12 Christian.

Join us on this journey toward true spirituality.

This is not a Bible Study but a Small Group experience. Come check it out!

Please sign up by Friday, September 9 by picking up a registration form in the office, online or by contacting Sandee Kremers – skremers@stfrancissartell.org. ## FRANTOBER FEST NEWS

Thanks to those who have picked up festival packets – many have returned their sold tickets already. Wow! Thanks again. Thanks for the general donations that are coming in for supporting the festival – those help offset many of the expenses we incur to make the festival happen – printing costs, advertising, tent rental, food costs and more. Thank you to those who continue to bring in items for the silent auction. There will be many great items to bid on soon!

A big thank you to Dan Kurowski, Jake Schneider and Paul Trobec for heading up our Franny Food stand. Paul has several years of managing things under the festival food tent. Dan & Jake have shared their time in all kinds of parish activities over the years as well. Dan served as a general chairperson of the festival in the past and Jake helped chair the fish fry a couple years ago . . . so, you can see it is in great hands. Other event/booth leaders are quietly working and getting prepared. Thank you.

Rick Fleege chairs the Mouse Game and is in need of somebody to catch some wild mice just ahead of the event. (Yes, we use wild mice and they are returned to their habitat after the event.) Our past source for mice is not able to help us this year. If you are a good mouse catcher – get in touch with Rick (or the parish office).

New this year for our festival since Dad's Belgian Waffles is no longer around, is our own parish pancake and sausage breakfast. We will need helpers in the kitchen and probably a handful of people to share their electric griddles. We have 4 or 5 cast iron griddles that will work on the gas ranges in the kitchen, but we also need a several electric griddles going to keep up with demand. If you come with the griddle that's the best, but you'll be accepted either way – your time and kitchen talents or sharing a griddle. The KC's did such a breakfast on Super Bowl Sunday of 2020 (just before Covid hit) and it was a blast! Most of the those guys are tied up in the food stand and beer stand Saturday night, so we are in need more of you (men and women) for food prep and serving. Contact Tom in the parish office (252-1363, ext. 405) with your offer to help.

Registration continues for the Franny Flyer. If you are not up for running, many helpers are needed on the route to direct the runners. You will be wearing fashionable safety vests and asked to point the way and cheer on the runners. We have all kinds of great people in our parish that can fill those spots. Help is also needed stuffing packets and with registration/check-in on the Saturday morning of the race. Watch for sign-up sheets in the gathering place!

ADORATION
