MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

“O sacred Banquet! in which Christ is consumed, the memorial of His passion is recalled, the mind is filled with grace, and a pledge of future glory is given to us.”
 St. Thomas Aquinas, hymn O Sacrum Convivium;
 Vatican II, Sacrosanctum Concilium §47

The Mystery of the Eucharist is the greatest gift Jesus Christ has given to His Church. It is that perfect farewell present that allows Him to truly remain with us until the end of the world. It is the most perfect expression of God's love and mercy we could imagine.

All time is somehow contained in the Eucharist. The past, present, and future come together in Jesus, the Alpha and the Omega. The loving sacrifice of our Savior on Calvary's Cross almost 2000 years ago is made present to us; we are united with Christ and one another to truly become His living Body here and now; and we receive a pledge of future life and glory with Him in heaven.

The great richness of this sacrament is reflected in the variety of names by which it is known:

- Eucharist, meaning “thanksgiving”;
- the Lord's Supper, in remembrance of its institution the night before Jesus' death (1 Corinthians 11:20) and in anticipation of the wedding feast of the Lamb in the heavenly Jerusalem (Revelation 19:9);
- the Breaking of Bread, a term that is connected with the Jewish Passover meal; with the miracles of the multiplication of the loaves which foreshadow the overflowing richness of the Eucharist; with the recognition of the Risen Christ by His disciples; and with the early Christian term designating their Eucharistic assemblies in which they were united as one Body with the Lord;
- the Holy Sacrifice, used since it makes present the one, eternal sacrifice of the Lord on the Cross and also includes the Church's self-offering to the Father;
- the Sacred Mysteries, along with similar terms, remind us that the Eucharist is the central act of the Church's supernatural life and worship;
- the Most Blessed Sacrament, which again highlights the central place of the Eucharist among all the sacraments and works of the Church;
- Holy Communion, because we are united as one Body in Christ through our reception of the Eucharist;
- Holy Mass (Missa), because as Christ was sent by His Father, so are we sent forth (“missa est”) to continue the mission of Christ in our daily lives.

(Ministry & Life Perspectives Continued)

The Eucharist is the greatest of the sacraments. All seven of these visible signs of grace were instituted by Jesus to share the grace of redemption with us. It is Christ Himself Who shares His divine life with us in Baptism. It is Christ Who sends His Spirit in Confirmation. It is Christ Who forgives in Penance and heals in the Anointing of the Sick. It is Christ in Whom a woman and a man become one in love in the life-long bond of Christian Marriage as an image of His love for the Church. It is Christ Who conforms those He chooses to His own public ministry of salvation in Holy Orders.

All the other sacraments, like all the works of the Church's apostolate and ministries, are actions that Christ does. They are living signs of His grace among us, and as such have their own dignity. But the Eucharist is Christ Himself, His own Body and Blood. He is truly and personally present in the Eucharistic species.

The celebration of the Eucharist makes present to us the one sacrifice of the Cross. This sacrifice is the source of the redemptive grace shared in the other sacraments, in the sacramentals, and in the Church's ministry. For these reasons, the Church calls the Eucharist “the most eminent sacrament.”

By Christ's own action, the miracle of “transubstantiation” occurs. In this miracle, the substance of bread and wine are truly and wholly changed into the Body and Blood of Jesus. Only the appearances (sometimes called the “accidents,” those aspects that are accessible to our bodily senses) of bread and wine remain.

STEWARDSHIP AND EVANGELIZATION

LIVING A LIFE OF DISCIPLESHIP

Remember those four pillars of stewardship? Here are two in action...

In today's Gospel passage, from Luke, we read the well-known parable of the Good Samaritan. Here, Jesus teaches us in rich detail what stewardship in action looks like. In fact, this parable could just as accurately be called the parable of the Good Steward.

The first thing we note about the Good Samaritan is that he is aware of the needs of those around him and responds generously. While the priest and Levi brush right past the man on the side of the road, the Samaritan is watching for those who might be in need. He has a hospitable way of looking at the world around him and so he is able to "see" in a way that the others did not, and he was "moved with compassion at the sight" of the man.

Next, we see the Good Samaritan spring into action to serve this man, setting aside his own schedule and plans to meet his needs. He does not just give the man a few dollars or offer quick words of encouragement from across the road. He goes right up to the man. He cleans and bandages his wounds. He puts the man on his own animal and brings him to an inn where he can heal. He ensures the innkeeper would continue to look after him, and he commits to returning to the man on his way back.

That is how we live out God's commandments. That is true hospitality and service. That is how a good steward springs into action when he comes upon a neighbor in need. And Jesus says to each of us personally, just as He did in today's Gospel, "Go and do likewise."

FESTIVAL NEWS

Jason and Shannon Adamski have done such a wonderful job of purchasing and working the food stand and we are looking for someone to shadow them and learn the ropes. Here is a brief description of the tasks they do for the festival.

*Order all of the food for the festival; fries, corn dogs, taco meat, tomatoes, lettuce, cheese, sour cream, taco sauce, hot dogs, buns, oil for frying, boats to put the food in, etc. Some of the food is ordered from Sysco a week early, some is purchased from Sam's the day before the festival.

*Saturday is set up! Set up the fryers, tables, check for supplies in the kitchen, which is about 3-4 hours

*Sunday we get there around 7:00 a.m. and start the fryers, chop all of the tomatoes and do the other prep work, getting the food in containers and on ice, warming the taco meat, etc. We serve the food all day or until it runs out, usually around 6:00 and then clean up. We clean up the kitchen. Sunday is typically a full 12 hour that day. Personally, I like working the line in the kitchen, it's a fun way to get to see everyone and say hi to people.

This is a big part of the festival. The biggest time commitment is the weekend of the festival. We are looking for a couple people to take on this task. This could be a couple, a couple of friends, a couple of couples, or a few people that are interested and don't know each other. If you know someone you work well with and want to take on this task we would LOVE to talk to YOU! Please call Vicki in the office 320.251.8115 x 129

PRAYER REQUESTS

If you know of anyone who needs our prayers and wants to be put on the following prayer list, please call 320-251-8115: Gerry Maleska, Rick Scharber & Pam Smoley.

Sacred Heart also has a prayer chain. Please call 320-492-9361, 320-252-3401 or the Parish Office at 320-251-8115 if you have a prayer request.

FEED MY STARVING CHILDREN/VALLEYFAIR

Please meet at Sacred Heart by 9:40 am!! We want to be sure we leave on time to get to Feed My Starving Children on time to serve. Reminder to bring money for food (or you can pack a lunch) and or a donation for FMSC .

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

We will be updating the list of people willing to pray in front of the Blessed Sacrament during the monthly adoration time. If you would be willing to be called to possibly cover some of the monthly time, please contact Jill L in the office. If you attend adoration regularly and would like to remain on the list, please call and verify your interest in doing so.

HOMEBOUND MINISTERS NEEDED

Seeking individuals who desire to serve the homebound through your caring presence and Holy Communion. Beside sharing the precious Body of Christ, community members are hungry for the presence of Christ through a friendly visit and a listening ear. We are in need of support after the 2pm Thursday Mass at Good Shepherd and Sunday's homebound outreach. Contact Dcn Joe for questions or opportunities to serve.

DCCW EUCCHARISTIC PILGRIMAGE

Have you always wanted to make a pilgrimage but never taken the time? Well now is your chance. The St. Cloud Diocesan Council of Catholic Women is hosting a Eucharistic Pilgrimage on Thursday, August 4. The day starts with 8 a.m. Mass at St. Louis Bertrand in Foreston, followed by a message from Fr. Derek Wiechmann, tour of the church and chapel, and adoration. Then it's on to St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Isanti where Fr. Don Wagner will greet us at approx. 11 a.m., followed by a tour, adoration and lunch. The day will conclude at St. Andrew's in Elk River around 2:30 p.m. where Fr. Mark Innocenti will join us for the Divine Mercy Chaplet, tour and adoration. Drive yourself or coach busing is available. Registration is required. Contact Jean Zwilling at (320) 492-7069 to reserve your spot by 7/15.

Adoration will be on July 11 & July 25
from 4-7 pm. Thank you for spending time with Jesus.

FALL FESTIVAL FUN

It's time to start looking ahead to our Fall Festival. There are several areas covered and plans are already shaping up, but it is good to gather to review progress and address questions. There are a couple of festival possibilities that would be nice to add if we can get volunteers.

One attraction that is a Franny special is The Mouse Game. People who have been to our festival in the past are familiar with this. It is an outdoor event and, again, would only be about 2 hours. If you are interested in leading either of these, please call Tom in the parish office at 320-252-1363 or email tofferdahl@stfrancissartell.org.

Help needed! Children games will run from 5 to 7. Looking at one shift unless I get lots of volunteers than two 1 hour shifts. Games being played 3 in a Row; Suspense game, Ring Toss, and Duck Pond. If you have artistic talent or want to be looking for artists for Face Painting. If interested in any of these please call Margaret at 320-249-9304.

NEEDED: Prizes for kids games; if you have some your kids have grown out of that are in decent condition or if you would like to buy something that would be helpful. Remember these would be little prizes nothing big! Have any of these donations to the church by August 1. If unsure give Margaret a call or text at 320-249-9304.

We are now accepting items for the Online Auction, which again will be available through www.32auctions.com. We ask for new items only. Watch the bulletin for more details to come.
