MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

Peace Be With You

In the Beatitudes Jesus taught the crowds gathered on the hillside, He presents the way to happiness in the Kingdom of God. You can find much beautiful commentary across twenty centuries on these timeless words. Even better, spend time in quiet prayer and ask Jesus to tell you more: "What do you want to say to me about following You and finding joy? Speak, Lord, your servant is listening."

Especially timely today from these words: "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God." Peace was the farewell gift of Jesus to the Apostles (John 14:27); peace was the first word of the Risen Christ to those same fearful disciples (John 20:19).

Yet even in the Body of Christ, peace is so elusive today, as you know all too well. All the more do we have the task to work toward peace. As I often say from the ethics of disaster planning: we cannot prevent all the harms that history brings, but we can act in such a way that we do not add to them.

So how are we to be peacemakers? This is not as simple as optimism, avoiding conflicts, or ignoring problems. At the same time, addressing those problems is not easy, quick, or likely to meet with unqualified success. Indeed, part of holiness is learning to live with imperfection in ourselves and in others while striving to be better. When St. Paul prayed that his struggles would cease, Jesus told him: "My grace is sufficient for you, for in weakness, power reaches perfection" (II Cor. 12:9).

There is no single strategy for making peace, but I offer a few suggestions of what being a peacemaker might look like in our interactions.

- Assume positive intent. Do not automatically engage others as adversaries to be opposed or problems to be managed.
- Listen more than you speak.
- Do a good deed for someone this week with intention and genuine concern.
- Smile and let yourself feel it.
- Look for the positive and affirm it as an antidote to the "Era of the Complaint."
- Fast from media that rouse your passions. If you find yourself succumbing to anger, hatred, contempt – turn it off. The purpose of news is to inform, not inflame.
- If it is a rumor, gossip, an insult, or a disparaging remark, just don't say it.
- Cultivate a wholesome and constructive hobby that gives you joy and even better, gives others joy.
- Above all, pray. Prayer helps us keep perspective. Jesus speaks of the wisdom of building on solid rock, so that the storms that inevitably come do not demolish. If we build on the shifting sands of commentary and public opinion, political affiliations, or whatever we read on the Web, we become vulnerable to unrest, disillusionment, frustration, anger. Whenever we find our worldview and conscience being formed more by human voices and opinions than by the Word of God, we need to reorient our hearts with the help of the Holy Spirit.

Do I always do these things myself? No; I certainly fail at times. But I am going to try to use the rest of the Year of St. Joseph – that man in whose home God's own Peace in the flesh dwelt – to improve, even if a little. I invite you to join me.

Fr. Tom

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER PARISH

Parish Raffle & Festival

The SFX Big Ticket raffle, online auction and Franny Flyer Run/Walk are being planned for September. Other events surrounding our annual festival are in limbo. We are looking for parishioners to become new chairperson(s) to head the annual parish festival. If you feel the call to organize this event, call Joe Schulte 320-250-1010 or Adam Vonderahe 320-252-1363.

We ask for donations of cash or gift cards to our $10k Big Ticket raffle. It is our hope to put together the raffle ticket and get it into the hands of parishioners by the first week of August. We would like commitments by the end of June. Our raffle is a great draw and raised $30k in ticket sales last year. Please contact the office if you wish to help by making a donation to the Big Ticket raffle, or to the festival in general – 252-1363.

In July, we will begin accepting items for the online auction, which again will be available through www.32auctions.com. We ask for new items only. Watch the bulletin for more details to come.

Registration for the 5K 10K Franny Flyer Run/Walk will take place later this Summer.

Monday, July 12

Fare for All is sponsored by a community collaboration of local congregations and community organizations, including Catholic Charities Emergency Services.

What is the “Miraculous Medal” and why is it called that?

The medal of the Immaculate Conception that has come to be called simply the “Miraculous Medal” dates back to an apparition of Mary to Saint Catherine Laboure, who was then a novice sister with the Daughters of Charity. On November 27, 1830, Our Lady appeared to her standing on a globe, with shafts of light streaming from her hands and the words, “O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee,” surrounding the image. In the same vision, Catherine saw a capital “M” with a cross above it and below two hearts. Catherine seemed to hear a voice telling her to have what she saw struck as a medal and a promise that those who wore the medal would have the protection and intercession of the Mother of God. The first 1,500 of medals were distributed in 1832. Many miraculous favors were attributed to the use of the medal.

Pastoral Council Members

We welcome new members Joe Gill, Doris Lodermeier and Jim Segler as they join current members Mark Kuhl, Shelly Teff, Eric Dietz, Gary Koshiol, & Marlyce Plante on the SFX Pastoral Council. We say goodbye and thank you to departing members Bob Detloff, Mat Steinberg, Deb Miller and Josh Stewart.

You may notice we have three new members but four leaving the council and two more who have agreed to remain for another term. We need one more new member to sit on this council beginning in September. A pastoral council is a consultative body in dioceses and parishes of the Roman Catholic Church that serves to advise the parish priest about pastoral issues. The council's main purpose is to investigate, reflect and reach conclusions about pastoral matters to recommend to the parish priest as appropriate. The council meets once a month, nine times a year (September thru June, no meeting in December). Please prayerfully consider this opportunity to serve your parish and contact any council member or the parish office to join.
