MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

This week we reach the midpoint of our 50-day celebration of Easter. How are you celebrating Easter?

Every year on this fourth Sunday of Easter, the gospel gives insight into Jesus Christ our Good Shepherd.

If you were hiring a shepherd today, here are some of the attributes. Wrestling a lamb gone wild to the ground because she is suffering from an infestation of ear mites is no slight task after mixing a pungent antidote of bitumen to swab the lamb's infected ear linings. Staving sheep's desire to gorge their thirst at a babbling brook keeps the good shepherd busy corralling his flock. He encourages them instead to lick the early-morning dew off the blades of grass to prevent his sheep from drowning to death from excessive water consumption. Sheep have a mind of their own, most often preferring to be anywhere they are not. Yet a good shepherd draws them away from danger into his inner circle of affection, becoming their headstone. A good shepherd places himself or herself between the sheep and the avenger, with each one's name written above his head because not one will be lost under the good shepherd's watchful care, for she sleeps always with one open eye.

We see those attributes of a good shepherd are exhibited by Jesus. He knows us each by name and is deeply concerned about us. In the Gospels, we see Jesus reaching out to those on the fringe, the sinner, the lame, the blind, the hurting and bringing healing into their lives. He ministered to everyone whether they were Jew or Gentile. While announcing the Kingdom is at hand, Jesus did not force discipleship. Instead, he offered space where the person could change, turning from the paths of greed, violence, jealousy, and discrimination. Ultimately, he died on the cross to free us from sin and death.

Today we honor our mothers, modern-day examples of the Good Shepherd. A mother heals hurts with a kiss, a touch, an enduring presence. A mother's love does not fade whether we accidentally break a favorite lamp or get into serious trouble. A mother knows us by name and continues to be concerned about us in our adulthood years. A mother helps her family from gorging on the river of chips and sweets and brings us to the table of vegetables, healthy protein and drink. A mother knows why hamsters die and why spinach doesn't taste good. A mother sacrifices for us, whether that is forging a dessert or giving up a special outing to come to one of our events. A mother prays that we seek the path that will lead us to eternal life.

I invite you to pray Psalm 23 with your mom in mind. We also pray this day for those who struggled to be a mother, those who because of circumstances could not be mother, and for those who have experienced miscarriages, stillbirths, crib deaths, or death of a child because of illness, accident, or violence.

Blessings on your Easter journey! Happy Mother's Day!

DISCERNMENT PROCESS FOR NEW LEADERSHIP

Many nominations came in on the weekend. The leadership areas of Pastoral Council, Area Catholic Community Committee, Faith Formation/Youth Ministry and Site Council for St. Francis Xavier School all rely on people from the community to share in advising Fr. Ron and staff. These people are also the eyes and ears of the parish and give feedback regarding the good things that are happening and opportunities for change or improvements. Each council meets regularly. For example, the pastoral Council meets 9 times in a year and the ACC 6 or 7 times (with sub-committee possibilities.) Meetings last 60 to 90 minutes.

The people who were nominated will be invited to an evening of discernment on Thursday, May 26th. They will meet with current council/board/committee members and hear more about the what they do. The nominees are invited to think and pray about this invitation to lead. Those who wish to move forward will have their name in a drawing to be done on Pentecost Sunday. It is by chance (and the Holy Spirit) that leaders are selected to serve – not a popularity contest.

Parish leadership broadens the view and adds gifts and talents to the table that make our parish better. If someone else nominated you, that's great – somebody sees something in you that makes them think you would be good in a leadership role. If you nominated yourself, then it could be you have a desire to bring your gifts to the table – thank you. Either way – our parish needs the people in the pews to walk with the pastor and staff in helping fulfill the parish mission.

If you have any questions, please contact Tom Offerdahl in the parish office.

Adoration will be on May 9 & 23 from 4-7pm. Thank you for spending time with Jesus.

THANK YOU

The family of Wilfred “Bill” Traut would like to thank Fr. Ron, Sandee Kremers, Mark Lewandowski and Aggie Schulte for the beautiful funeral Mass.

Thank you to Sue Schlosser and her wonderful group of ladies for providing the luncheon.

Thank you to the parish and community for support provided during dad’s final journey.
