MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

Communion, Participation, Mission

In 2023, the 16th Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops will focus on “Synodality” - a way to think of the ordering of the life of the Church. It helps me to think of this in relation to our own experience with Area Catholic Communities: it is always a question of balancing the natural tension between centrality and subsidiarity; or in more familiar terms, between being one and being many.

In this way, our life as a Church reflects something of the one God Who is a communion of three Persons. We can say that the very life of God is this mystery of Trinity in Unity. Figuring out how best to express that divine mystery in our very human lives is a perennial challenge.

A centralized organization can be efficient and uniform, but the richness of unique individuality and diverse gifts and insights can be lost. At the same time, too great a variation in what is essential to the identity of an organization can undermine its unity and the potential for great things through collaborative work towards a common goal.

The term “synod” is from the Greek words that mean “coming or meeting together.” It is both a structure long used in the history of the Church, and also an event focused around a particular theme. Pope Paul VI set up a regular pattern of convening bishops in synod over 50 years ago.

Pope Francis opened the first phase of preparation for the 2023 Synod of Bishops this last Sunday, October 10; and this weekend all over the nation and world, dioceses begin their part in this preparatory phase, which will run until April. That is why this weekend, we are praying fervently to the Holy Spirit in our Mass readings and orations.

In the Book of Revelation, the risen Christ says: “Whoever has ears ought to hear what the Spirit says to the churches.” The plural “churches” here refers to the local Church – today we would say “dioceses” – and sums up the purpose of the whole process: to listen to the Spirit, Whom Jesus promised “will remind you of all I told you and lead you into all truth” (John 14:26).

Much more will be shared as the diocesan phase develops, but each of us can already do three things:

- 1) Pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit in this process, that all may clearly hear the voice of the Good Shepherd leading us to the “fresh and green pastures” of new strength and vigor for the Church.
- 2) Prayerfully reflect on your own experience of the Church and be prepared to share what you find hopeful, helpful, problematic, difficult, possible, and concerning in the life of your parish, your diocese, and the Church as a whole. I find this reflected in the Gospel we hear for this Synod Mass – the story of Emmaus, where the unrecognized Jesus walks with two of the disciples and asks them: “What are you discussing as you go your way?” This is our entry into the exact same encounter with Christ.

This stage of listening may be difficult; it can be hard to hear about our weaknesses and failures to live the Gospel authentically. But it is something like slamming the door on a messy closet - we can keep it out of sight but that does not bring order to the clutter. Even those who have questioned the Synod and its process are already participating in it ... we need to hear those concerns as a Church and bring as many perspectives as we can to work together for healing and unity in the Body of Christ.

3) Be willing to take part in the opportunities to offer your perspectives. We need to hear from all different ages, backgrounds, vocations, careers, experiences of life. Watch for details in the coming weeks; much is still in the development stage.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Your love.

COMMUNITY NEWS

St. Francis Xavier
CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Hello! I want to take this time to formally introduce myself. My name is Heidi Schloe and I am the new principal at St. Francis Xavier School. I have been a part of Catholic education for 21 years. I started my career in education teaching 3rd grade at St. Andrew Catholic School in Elk River for 16 years. In 2016, I started at St. Francis Xavier as a 3rd grade teacher. I have always had the desire to become a principal at a Catholic school and started my path to earn my principal's license two years ago. I am very excited and blessed to start my principal career here at St. Francis Xavier, a school that is dear to my heart. My husband Brent and I have three children. Henry is an 8th grader at Cathedral High School and my other 2 children attend SFX. Amelia is a 3rd grader and Harrison is in preschool. Another passion of mine is coaching and I am blessed to also have the opportunity to coach volleyball at Cathedral. I look forward to meeting all the new families and reconnecting with familiar families throughout this school year.

Blessings, Heidi

COATS FOR KIDS

St. Francis Xavier, Annunciation, and Sacred Heart are drop-off sites for Coats for Kids. For 7 years the Knights of Columbus have been collecting coats to distribute to those in need in our community. Donations should be new or gently used (and cleaned) and they can be placed in the box in the gathering place at St. Francis Xavier Church, at Sacred Heart in Sauk Rapids and Annunciation in Mayhew Lake. In addition to coats, other winter apparel is being accepted and it can be for infant through adult sizes. Our community has been generous in supporting this ministry in the past and we are thankful for past donations.

The Knights of Columbus will collect coats until Nov. 30th More info call Tom: 252-0126.

STEWARDSHIP

In the story of the loaves and fishes, Jesus blessed and multiplied the five loaves and two fish.

The food was shared with the crowd that was listening to Jesus preach. When the people were finished eating Jesus told the disciples To gather the leftovers. There were twelve baskets full.

This is what happens with our gifts of treasure... if we share our gifts, they multiply.

BAPTISMS

We welcome the following children baptized into our parish family and the Christian community:

Quinn Elizabeth Gillen, daughter of Dennison & Elizabeth, baptized at Sacred Heart.

Julia Layne Leuthardt, daughter of Daughter of Brandon & Emma, baptized at Sacred Heart.

BANNS OF MARRIAGE

The family of Esther Then who passed away October 10, and the family of Joyce Heitzman who passed away October 10, both from St. Francis Xavier. Eternal Rest grant unto them.

CHANGES, THEY ARE COMING

Please note that we will make a few changes to the current bulletin. We will be adding more space to the common pages and perhaps shortening the pages of each parish. Trying to not duplicate information. Blessings on your week.

The Creed – a Study of Catholic Faith

with Bishop Robert Barron

“I believe in one God,” we say each weekend. What does that really mean? Where does that clunky word “consubstantial” come from? What is “the resurrection of the body?”

You are invited to a six-week series on The Creed, newly produced by Word on Fire Ministries and presented by Bishop Barron. Each session will watch a segment of the video series (about 45-50 minutes) followed by discussion and faith-sharing. You can watch the first session online for free at <https://creed.wordonfire.org/creed-series>

The study will meet at Sacred Heart in the Parish Hall on Monday evenings from 6:30-8:00 p.m. on the following dates: October 18 and 25, and November 8, 15, 22, and 29. All from our ACC parishes and beyond are welcome! To help with ordering materials, please call your parish office to register for the study. There is no cost, but a free will offering will be accepted to cover the cost of the study guides (valued at $15).

A FATHER IN THE SHADOWS II

The Year of St. Joseph – Joseph – A Father in the Shadows II

The previous entry spoke of Joseph's "chaste love" for Mary and Jesus in categories that go beyond the physical manifestations of love and enter into the underlying attitude of his heart: a lack of possessiveness, a desire for the freedom and flourishing of another, a self-denial that makes the loved one, not the self, the center of attention. This is Joseph "in the shadows" – not to hide, but to allow Jesus and Mary to be in the light because of his love for them.

Pope Francis goes on to note that "Joseph found happiness not in mere self-sacrifice but in self-gift. In him, we never see frustration but only trust. His patient silence was the prelude to concrete expressions of trust." This "self-gift" is at the heart of true love, and one can argue that Jesus found His strength in the Garden of Gethsemane not only from Mary's example: "Let it be done according to your word," but from Joseph's witness to faithful obedience in love to God's will, even when it is mysterious.

We often remark upon the silence of Joseph, for not a word of his is recorded in Scripture; but we must not confuse that with the idea that Joseph had nothing to say, or was a brooding, stoic figure. His witness to God's love was not in words but in deeds highlighted in the Gospels, and that is the challenge to us from Joseph's silence: not simply to say, but to do; not simply to hold high ideals and good intentions, but to act on them with consistent love.

How can you fulfill a task of life this week not only with obedience and trust, not only with self-sacrifice, but the self-gift that is love?

Please remember to continue to pray for all those affected by illness, their caregivers and public officials working to keep us safe. Please pray • For those lost to suicide • for peace in our world • for all pregnant women • for all those lost to COVID • for those dealing with cancer • for God's wisdom for our President and all world leaders • for Pope Francis, all Bishops, priests, deacons and religious • for legal protection for unborn children • for all Parish Prayer Line requests and those who have recently received prayer blankets.

Please visit your Parish website for those in your Parish needing prayers.
