8th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil; for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks." - Lk 6:43, 45

MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

From safari.....

In the late nineties I was the pastor of St. Joseph Parish in Waite Park. The parish formed a relationship with Bethlehem Lutheran Church. Bethlehem Lutheran is in the south part of the parish. Since both Catholics and Lutherans celebrate Lent, the two parishes decided to celebrate Ash Wednesday together. The combined Ash Wednesday gathering to place at Bethlehem Lutheran and I was selected to preside and preach that evening. Beyond the uniqueness of the service, the place of the service had personal significance for me. In my childhood I had ran around the area that is now Bethlehem Lutheran, as it had been my dad's parent's farm. In fact, the church's sanctuary space is about where the farmhouse sat. So that Wednesday evening I came to the ambo to preach and shared the back story. A recurring theme emerged: this place was once a farm, now it is a church. Where once seed was scattered and black angus were tended too, now God's word is spread and all are invited into the flock of Jesus, our Good Shepherd.

The journey from a farm to a church speaks to Lent's message of personal transformation, growing deeper in our relationship with God. Lent means "to lengthen" and comes for the Old English word for "spring" or "growth". It is this emphasis that marks the following 40 days (excluding Sundays). During this season Christians are called to reflect and practice those activities that promote spiritual growth, and help us "return to the Lord our God" more fully.

As one writer noted, "March is the month of Lent, when we are asked to rebuild the foundations of our lives on the solid rock of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. We pray that God will open our eyes to the glory and the needs all around us, the abundance and the lack. We fast to remember how good the gifts of the earth are. We fast to remember those whose share in that goodness has been stripped from them and destroyed. We give alms to help those in need, to restore — to them and to us — creation's harmony and balance.

(Ministry & Life Perspectives Continued)

Hopefully, by the end of Lent we will be somehow changed, renewed, re-converted and thus readied to celebrate the Triduum. Blessings on your Lenten Journey.

STEWARDSHIP

Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.

Each must do as already determined, without sadness or compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

Moreover, God is able to make every grace abundant for you, so that in all things, always having all you need, you may have an abundance for every good work. 2 Cor 9:6-10

NO GREATER LOVE

In No Greater Love, You Will Experience the Unconditional Love Christ Has for You – Meeting for the first four Fridays of Lent (March 4, 11, 18, 25) & Monday, April 4

We often hear about Jesus' passion and death but imagine experiencing them for the very first time. In No Greater Love: A Biblical Walk-Through Christ's Passion, we are going to walk step-by-step with Jesus on his journey from his agony in the garden to his crucifixion on Calvary. Along the way, we will unpack the biblical background to these events, the prophecies, and most especially, the ways Jesus is inviting us to walk more closely with him today. No Greater Love is a five-part Bible study program that begins Friday, March 4 at 10:00 am. For more information or to sign up please contact Sandee Kremers at 320-252-1363 x1103 or skremers@stfrancissartell.org. Cost $15 for the book that we will be using, and you will also need your Bible. Please register by Monday, February 21 so we can get supplies ordered. Each Bible Study Session will last approximately 90 minutes. Registration forms can be found in the SFX Parish Office or online.

8TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ST. KATHARINE DREXEL

St. Katharine Drexel | March 3

With a family like hers, it's no wonder that St. Katharine Drexel (November 26, 1858 – March 3, 1955) grew up to become one of the first American-born saints.

Born in Philadelphia in 1858, her mother passed away when she was only five weeks old. Her father, a renowned banker, remarried a wonderful woman, and together they raised St. Katherine Drexel and her two sisters in a life of privilege. Both financially and spiritually well-endowed, the Drexels were devout Catholics and set an excellent example of true Christian servitude with prayer and care for the poor.

After her father's death, St. Katharine Drexel gave up her inheritance and instead devoted her life to the material and spiritual well-being of black and native Americans. Mother Drexel, as she would become known as, established the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament for Indians and Colored, and together they opened a boarding school in Santa Fe, the first of 50 missions for Native Americans in 16 states.

At 77, she suffered a heart attack and was forced to retire from active ministry. She spent the next 20 years of her life in quiet yet intense prayer. She died at the age of 96 and was canonized in 2000 by Pope John Paul II.
