MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

“I am the food of those fully grown. Grow and you shall feed on Me. But you will not change Me into your own substance, as you do with the food of your body. Instead, you shall be changed into Me.”

These words come from St. Augustine’s Confessions (VII.10), that remarkable review of how God led him from darkness to light, from sin to holiness, from the restlessness of human success to the peace of God’s mercy in the scandal of the Cross.

Augustine understood these words spoken to him by Jesus in his long search for truth. What he found was not ideas and concepts and theories, but a living Person, the Word made flesh, Truth itself, through Whom all things were made. And that Word comes not only to the mind, but to the body in the mystery of the Eucharist. That most basic need of life – to eat – is the path Jesus uses to enter our souls.

Later in the book, Augustine also says of the Eucharist: “The price of my redemption is always in my thoughts. I eat it and drink it and minister it to others: and as one of the poor I long to be filled with it, to be one of those who eat and have their fill” (X.43).

You shall be changed into Me. This is the inner meaning of our sharing in the Eucharist, to enter into such a perfect Communion of life that we not only consume the Body of Christ, we become the Body of Christ, the Church.

While the Church has celebrated the Eucharist from the very beginning, and Eucharistic devotion is already evident in the New Testament, today’s Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ (sometimes shortened to “Corpus Christi” or “the Body of Christ” in Latin) was instituted by Pope Urban IV in 1264. He had been introduced to this particular devotion of a group of nuns in Liege, Belgium, especially Juliana of Liege; and when he was elected Pope, he extended this diocesan observance to the universal Church.

The prayers and hymns for this feast were composed by St. Thomas Aquinas, who had been commissioned by Pope Urban. They remain among the most enduring expressions of Catholic faith in the Eucharist. Like St. Augustine, St. Thomas’ words not only speak to the mind of this beautiful mystery – that Jesus gives us Himself, Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity – but also speak to the heart, for this Gift of Jesus is the perfect gift of His love. We receive this Gift in Communion, made one with the Lord; we worship this Gift in Eucharistic adoration; but above all, Christ invites us to live this Gift in daily works of prayer and mercy: “Do this in memory of Me.”

The Eucharistic Revival parish year begins this weekend around the country. Its goal remains for the Church and the world to be renewed in love for Jesus, our Redeemer, always present among us through the Eucharist. Like St. Augustine, we do not value the Eucharist as a thing, an idea, a concept, but as a Person.

Many parishes conduct a procession with the Blessed Sacrament after the Mass is complete. It is a vivid witness to our desire to follow Jesus and bring His love out into the world. But while the procession happens on this solemnity, it is no different than the command Jesus gives us at every Mass: “Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord; Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.”

As Jesus invited the Apostles when He appeared to them by the lake, so He invites us: “Come, eat your meal” – Come to Me, He says; come to this sacred Communion that makes you live forever. You shall be changed ... into Me.”

STEWARDSHIP AND EVANGELIZATION
LIVING A LIFE OF DISCIPLESHIP

"Because there is one bread, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one bread."
1 Corinthians 10:17

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. We are called to be fed and to feed others. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God's kingdom here on earth. Two, it helps us strengthen each other's relationship with God the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. It becomes our roadmap to Heaven. Let's help each other get there!

If you didn't join us this year for TOD, please consider taking the survey. If you have questions or need assistance, please contact Jason Prigge.

Young Adult Needs Assessment

The Young Adult Team for the One in Christ Catholic Community needs your voice. This Assessment serves as a continuation to the Synod called by Pope Francis in 2021. Your voice plays a vital role in ensuring we are listening and meeting your needs along with the needs of others when we consider ministry with Young Adults. If you are a young adult aged 18-39, please take the time to complete this 10-15 minute assessment. If you feel inclined, we also encourage you to share this assessment with your family and friends. Your submission will remain anonymous unless you leave your contact information for a follow-up.

NEW Pray & Play

Join us for an exciting new initiative for young adults and young families! On select Tuesdays, young adults and their young children (toddler - Kindergartenish) are invited for Daily Mass at Sacred Heart (5:30 PM) and then to the playground to play. This is a great opportunity for young adult parents to enjoy fellowship while kids have an opportunity to play and make new friends! If you'd like to pack your family a picnic dinner, that is encouraged. If the weather doesn't cooperate (rain), Daily Mass would obviously still take place but playing on the playground would be cancelled. If you have questions or are interested in learning more, text Jason Prigge (320.281.9486).

PASTORAL COUNCIL

We are in need of one new member to succeed Ralph Worm for the Sacred Heart Pastoral Council. Thank you, Ralph, for your years of generous service and support for the mission of our parish community, especially during the difficult times of COVID.

As you may recall, each of our One in Christ ACC parishes retains its own Pastoral Council, with at least one member of each parish council also serving on the joint ACC Pastoral Council. The ACC Council discerns common goals for the whole ACC, and the individual Pastoral Councils determine how to implement those common goals in their own parish communities, along with attending to their own specific parish needs and programs.

As many parishes do, we will follow a discernment process modeled on that described in the Acts of the Apostles. On the weekends of June 18 and June 25, slips of paper and pencils will be in the pews for parishioners to nominate any confirmed member of Sacred Heart for consideration to serve on its Pastoral Council. You may certainly nominate yourself, or anyone else you believe would have the vision, interest, and broad parish perspective to serve in this way.

Those nominated will be contacted to determine if they are willing to serve a three-year term on the Council, which meets quarterly. Those willing to serve will be invited to a discernment evening on June 28 when the work of the Council is more fully described and any questions can be addressed. The names of the potential Council members are placed in a basket and drawn at random at that gathering in the context of prayer to the Holy Spirit. Those whose names are drawn will begin their service on the Council on July 1.
