MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

From safari.....

An Indian peasant had a lifelong passion to visit Bombay. He talked about traveling there so often that his friends and neighbors eventually collected enough money to pay for the trip. When the day for his departure arrived, everyone gathered at the outskirts of their village to wish him well and see him off. The peasant thanked everyone for making his trip possible and started walking down the road to the big city to fulfill his dream. But to everyone's surprise, he returned much earlier than expected. When they asked him if anything had happened to stop him from reaching the city, he answered, "Nothing." He assured them his trip went well and he had seen Bombay. When someone asked him what Bombay was like, he responded, "It's quite a sight! About a foot and a half high, two feet long, green, with yellow letters spelling out B-O-M-B-A-Y." He'd gone no further than the sign marking the city limits, read it, and returned to his village, content He'd gone no further than the sign marking the city limits, read it, and returned to his village, content that his lifelong dream had been fulfilled.

If we just read or hear the scriptures without realizing they're pointing to something else, we're imitating the peasant's behavior. We zero in only on the stories we ignore the truth in the depth of the passage.

For instance, the rising of Lazarus has both a literal meaning --- Lazarus' own return from the dead and a deeper level meaning – the giving of life to all people. On the literal plan we see a man who was dead four days, Jesus who is moved to tears and calls Lazarus to come out. The raising of Lazarus draws others to believe in Jesus.

On a deeper level several things are taking place. Notice Jesus delays in going to Bethany. Like the miracle of the water into wine, where Jesus says his hour has not come, Jesus going to Bethany was on his Father's timetable and not that of human need. Jesus also speaks of Lazarus being asleep. For the gospel writer being asleep referred to being connected to God and death being disconnected from God. There was an understanding that the soul stayed around for 3 days, by the fourth day there would have been no hope for resurrection. The message is that God does act in our lives but not always according to our timetable. That nothing is hopeless for God.

Notice that as Lazarus comes from the tomb others must remove the wrappings and the cloth. We too need to help others. The power of the resurrection is present now. Lifting us from our tombs such as low self-esteem, doubt, peer pressure, sadness/heart ache, anger, or resentment. It is these moments that assure us of the lasting resurrection.

In these remaining days of Lent, take the time to explore the depths of a scripture passage, don't stop at the outskirts but venture to the center and along the way discover the gems God has set out for you.

Continued blessings on your Lenten Journey.

At this point in our Lenten journey, it is tempting to grow weary of the spiritual disciplines we have taken on. Today's readings inspire us to remain faithful, in grateful response to a God who loves us so much.

In our first reading, the prophet Ezekiel speaks God's own words to us. "I will put my spirit in you that you may live... I have promised and I will do it, says the Lord." Our God wants to be so closely united to us that we are one with Him. And He has promised He will do it. But only if we make room for Him by making Him THE priority of our lives. Putting God first is a grateful response that is very pleasing to Him.

How can we do this? Our second reading, from Romans, tells us. "Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh... you are in the spirit if only the Spirit of God dwells in you."

The disciplines of Lent and a stewardship way of life are wonderful gifts that free us from too great an attachment to "the flesh." The sacrifices we make as Christian stewards are not meant to restrict our freedom and joy. Quite the contrary. They are tools to help us find the real freedom and joy that only come when we make room in our lives for God.

As we journey closer to the Passion of our Lord, let us intensify our Lenten resolutions and our stewardship way of life, inviting the Holy Spirit to take over more and more of our lives. By Easter, we will be freer to rejoice in Him and truly pleasing to God.

THE EASTER VIGIL

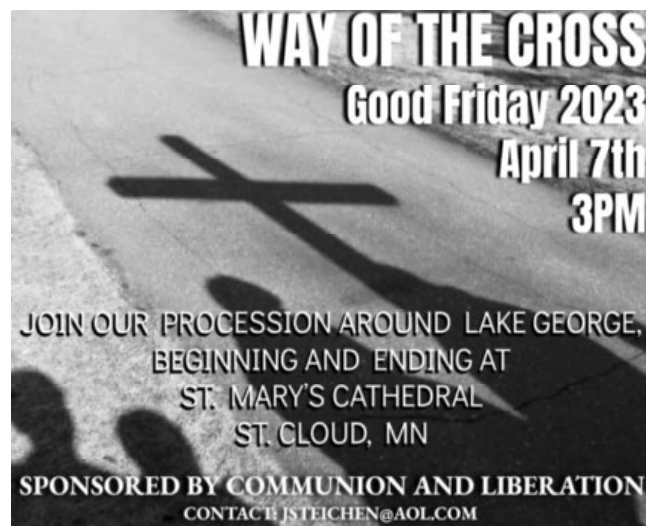

The Easter Vigil is the most beautiful liturgy in the Roman Catholic Church. Sacred Heart and Annunciation will celebrate the Vigil together at Sacred Heart at 8:00 pm on April 8, along with our visitors and those home for the great feast of Easter. You are all encouraged to join us (the Vigil fulfills the Easter obligation). There are four main parts to the Vigil.

Service of Light: The liturgy will begin outdoors with the Service of Light, including the blessing of the new fire, the preparation of the new Paschal candle, the procession into the church and sharing the Light of Christ, and the Exsultet (the Easter Proclamation), an ancient hymn of praise to the Risen Christ and our hope in salvation.

Liturgy of the Word: The vigil readings capture the faithful promises of God throughout the history of our salvation, from the beginning. We hear the Creation Story; the foreshadowing of Jesus' sacrifice in the story of Abraham and Isaac; the parting of the Red Sea to free Israel from slavery; and the promises of the prophets. Listen for the constant theme of water, since all of this leads to Baptism as our share in the risen life of Jesus, as proclaimed in the Gospel and the return of the Alleluia after our Lenten penance. This year all nine readings provided for the Vigil will be proclaimed. These Scriptures help us to meditate on the wonderful works of God for his people since the beginning of time.

Baptismal Liturgy: This year we do not have any candidates for Baptism and no one to be confirmed, so the Baptismal liturgy will consist of the blessing of the new water, the renewal of our baptismal promises, and sprinkling with blessed water.

Liturgy of the Eucharist: The Mass continues, with special prayers inserted during the Eucharist Prayer. The whole Church is called to join at the sacrificial table that Christ prepared for us through his death and resurrection. After Communion, we conclude with a solemn blessing and sung dismissal, sending us forth with the Easter Alleluia echoing in our hearts.
