12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

12th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" - Mk 4:39-40

MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

Today is Father's Day in over 50 countries. For most of us, our fathers are or have been examples of God's unconditional love in our lives. Our fathers are our best cheer leaders, loving us unconditionally, have sat with us in hardship and celebrated our successes, offered both solicited and unsolicited advice, have modeled discipleship to us. For these and many other attributes, we give thanks to God for our fathers today.

The boat is being tossed about like a rag doll, there is a good chance they may drown, and remember that these are fishermen not novice sailors. The disciples have reason to fear. It is startling to hear Jesus say, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" These are Jesus words to his disciples as they wake him from sleep on the stern of the boat midst a violent storm --- talk about being a sound sleeper!

Do not be afraid! Scholars have reported that these words are spoken some 365 times in the bible. Fear is a strong emotion in most of our lives. One psychiatrist writes, "Toxic worry is a disease of the imagination. It is insidious and invisible, like a virus. It sets upon you unwanted ... stealing its way into your consciousness until it dominates your life. As worry infiltrates your mind, it diminishes your ability to enjoy your family, your friends ... because you live in fear of what might go wrong. It undermines your ability to work, to love, and to play." Fear can bring us into in action, zap us of joy.

Jesus is quite clear, we cannot grow in faith, unless we learn to deal with our fears. Our fears are like the winds of the violent storm the disciples face in the gospel today. Some of the common pressures in peoples' lives that lead to fear: job pressures, money concerns, health issues, and relationship worries, including divorce and loneliness. In addition, many face stresses from social media and poor sleep behaviors. And at even deeper level, these fundamental questions: Am I enough? Can I survive all the things that scare me? How can I be certain, that this action, word, or thought is not sinful, causing me to be on the road to hell.

Notice Jesus' response today, he does not scold the disciples for waking him up or dismiss their fears. Rather he rises and speaks three words: "Peace be still!" In those moments when the world seems to be crashing in around you or self-doubt enters your heart, hear Jesus say to the storm raging within you: "Peace be still!"

Jesus invites us to put faith over fear. Our fears are real, but God's love assures us nothing will harm us. Jesus modeled what faith looks like, as he faced his fears in the garden at the Mount of Olives. Strengthen through his prayer, Jesus enters his passion and death, knowing he would overcome. We know the end of the story; Jesus rose from the dead.

As fears enter your life, take Jesus' hand and let him lead you. He who quieted a raging storm, will certainly quiet any storm of life you are facing.

Fr. Ron

Evangelization Committee - One in Christ, is asking for your prayers. Pray that the Holy Spirit guides us as we go forward in discipleship planning. Thank you!

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship is built on four pillars...
Hospitality, Prayer, Formation, Service...
These help us live a life of Stewardship.

Formation is learning about God and his teachings and how to apply them to our lives.

You might be thinking I learned about God in religion classes.

I've been confirmed so I have learned all I need to know. Faith Formation is an ongoing process. Here are some ways we can learn more...

Read the bible, go on a retreat, spend time in Adoration in front of the Blessed Sacrament,

Go to Mass and listen to the homily with an open mind. Sit quietly and listen for God to speak to you.

YEAR OF ST JOSEPH-TRUST & OBEDIENCE

St. Matthew is clear that Mary's unexpected pregnancy deeply troubled Joseph. Perhaps it seemed like a betrayal by one he thought he knew well and could trust; or perhaps she had been the victim of an assault. Mary seemed like such a transparently good person – what could have happened? Whatever was the case, Joseph knew it put her in danger of stoning and his own reputation would be ruined. The clearest path seemed to end their betrothal quietly so she would not be exposed to public disgrace and punishment; she could leave town and have the baby where no one would ask too many questions. He loved Mary and it was a deep sorrow in his heart to lose her and the future they had planned; but this seemed the way to make the best of it for all involved. Then God intervenes with the angelic messages in dreams – four incidents are recounted – and Joseph accepts Mary and her Child into his home, no doubt enduring some mockery and ridicule; flees to Egypt as an exile with his family, perhaps for almost two years; returns to Nazareth rather than Judea to yet again re-establish his home and business. Referring to Mary's faith and trust in answering the angel, "Let it be done to me as you say" (fiat mihi secundum verbum tuum), Pope Francis says: "In every situation, Joseph declared his own 'fiat' like those of Mary at the Annunciation and Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane." While we have no recorded words of Joseph, we have this solid testimony: "When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him" (Matthew 1:24).

Parish Raffle & Festival

The SFX Big Ticket raffle, online auction and Franny Flyer Run/Walk are being planned for September. Other events surrounding our annual festival are in limbo. We ask for donations of cash or gift cards to our $10k Big Ticket raffle. It is our hope to put together the raffle ticket and get it into the hands of parishioners by the first week of August. Please contact the office if you wish to help by making a donation to the Big Ticket raffle, or to the festival in general – 252-1363.

In July, we will begin accepting items for the online auction, which again will be available through www.32auctions.com. We ask for new items only. Watch the bulletin for more details to come.
